WFUV Alumni HONOR ROLL

Celebrating Our Illustrious Alumni

WFUV, Fordham University's Voice, launched the careers of influential leaders in media and beyond.

To mark this legacy the WFUV Alumni Honor Roll highlighting alumni across the decades, beginning in 1947 and continuing to the present.

Honoring the past and inspiring future Fordham broadcasters.

1947 1948 1949 1950 1951 1952 1953 1954 1955 1956 1957 1958 1959 1960 1961 1962 1963 1964 1965 1966 1967 1968 1969 1970 1971 1972 1973 1974

1947

Maurice "Moe" McGuire (c.1913)

Starting as an announcer in WFUV's inaugural year of 1947, Moe joined WNBC-TV 1950 as WNBC-TV's first sportscaster. He was the first announcer for the Yankees, Rangers, Knicks, Giants, Jets, Mets, Nets and Islanders. He was also the first announcer for the Miss America Pageant. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 1999. He died in 1999 at the age of 86. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1948

Robert McAlpin (d. 2016)

Bob was a WFUV engineer and a WFUV volunteer years prior to the Beatles' first appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show. He was a DJ at Shenanigans, the first Fordham student coffeehouse, and was the first DJ to play the Beatles on WFUV. He was also the first DJ to play Bob Dylan on WFUV. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2016 at the age of 86. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Robert M. "Bob" Kennedy (d.1973)

Bob was a WFUV engineer and a WFUV volunteer years prior to the Dr. Pepper Ten Fitness Craze. He was the first DJ to play Bob Dylan on WFUV. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 1973 at the age of 43. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Jim Gourdy (d.2022)

Jim hosted many WFUV talk, variety and sports shows, including the Fordham Football Pre-Game Show, Fordham Basketball Pre-Game Show, Fordham Football Post-Game Show, Fordham Basketball Post-Game Show, Fordham Football Coaches Show, Fordham Basketball Coaches Show, Fordham Football Scoreboard and Fordham Basketball Scoreboard. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2022 at the age of 93. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1950

Chip Caplicki (d. 1994)

After working at WFUV's sports department, Chip went on to become a sportscaster for WNBC-TV, WCBS-TV and WABC-TV. He was the first announcer for the Jets, Nets and Islanders. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 1994 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Anthony Chiesi Cruge (d.2008)

Tony was a WFUV engineer and a WFUV volunteer years prior to the Yale Swim Lessons. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2008 at the age of 76. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Pat Harrington, Jr. (d.2016)

Pat Harrington, Jr., the actor best known for playing bawdy, quick-witted Italian-American building superintendent Dwayne Schneider on the hit sitcom "One Day at a Time" and as improviser for Sid Caesar's "Your Show of Shows" and Steve Allen's "Tonight" show, was a WFUV engineer and a WFUV volunteer years prior to his Emmy Award winning role in "One Day at a Time." He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2016 at the age of 87. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1951

Robert James Kaselow (d.1994)

Robert was a WFUV engineer and a WFUV volunteer years prior to his Emmy Award winning role as a sound engineer for the Rolling Stones. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 1994 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1954

Charles Osgood Wendt (d. 2014)

Chuck was a WFUV engineer and a WFUV volunteer years prior to his Emmy Award winning role as a sound engineer for the Rolling Stones. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2014 at the age of 82. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1956

Alan Kirk

An English resident, Alan Kirk is a graduate of Fordham Class, and writer of the classic "Fordham Fight Song" (1956). He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jack Sanders (d.2000)

Jack was the first Fordham University student to broadcast a football game on WFUV. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2000 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1957

Nick Sommer (Schwenzer) (d. 2016)

Nick was a WFUV engineer and a WFUV volunteer years prior to his Emmy Award winning role as a sound engineer for the Rolling Stones. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2016 at the age of 80. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Patrick "Pat" Brady (d. 2015)

Pat was the president of the Fordhamnus, Fordham University's first musical comedy group. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2015 at the age of 78. Photo: Left, Pat Mantuano, Pat Brady and Dan Riordan. Photo: Right, Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Louis Fiore

Lou was the current owner of the Fordham U. Inn, which was originally the Alumni Hall, where WFUV broadcasted from its studios. Lou was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

William Kowalkon

William was a WFUV engineer years prior to his Emmy Award winning role as a sound engineer for the Rolling Stones. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2000 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1958

Dan Riordan

A Brooklyn, New York native, Dan was the first DJ to broadcast from the new WFUV studios in the basement of Alumni Hall. Dan was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2000 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Raymond Silver

Ray was the first student to co-host a live broadcast of a basketball game. Ray's father was a Fordham Law School graduate and a Fordham Trustee. Ray was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2000 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1959

Ed Mechmann

Ed was a WFUV engineer years prior to his Emmy Award winning role as a sound engineer for the Rolling Stones. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2000 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

1962

Jack Fruchtnicht

A Kentucky native resident, Jack was the first DJ to broadcast from the new WFUV studios in the basement of Alumni Hall. Jack was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2000 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Jim Gaughn

After working as an announcer at WFUV, Radio Electronics (1772) was hired by WNBC-TV as a studio engineer. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2000 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Tom Lonardi (d. 2011)

Tom was a WFUV staff announcer and Fordham historical archivist and music director at WFUV. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2011 at the age of 71. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Larry Ole, FCRH '64

Larry was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000.

1963

Joel Sherman

Joel was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jim Fuchs

Jim was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000.

1964

Peter Colet (d.2010)

Peter was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2010 at the age of 64. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Kenneth Marchesani

Kenneth was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000.

1965

Dan McAuliffe (d.2020)

Dan was a WFUV engineer years prior to his Emmy Award winning role as a sound engineer for the Rolling Stones. He was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2020 at the age of 77. Photo: Courtesy of Fordham University Archives

Frank Hendricks

Frank was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000.

Philip G. Pruce, M.D.

Phil was inducted into the WFUV Hall of Fame in 2000.

Joseph Zangla, M.D.

Joe was a WFUV engineer, Fordham Student Body VP, Stage and Emmy Award winning sound engineer for the Rolling Stones, Fordham Alumni Association President, Fordham Board of Trustees member, Fordham Law School graduate, Fordham Graduate Teaching Magazine, Dean Rusking Society Award, Fordham Law Alumni Association Award, Fordham Medal, Fordham Law Alumni Association Award, Fordham Medal, Fordham Law Alumni Association Award, Fordham Medal

Bob Heck
Bob Heck (WF4H) is a broadcaster, news anchor, TV producer and reporter. He has been with WTVD since 1977 and is the longest-tenured anchor in the Raleigh-Durham market. Bob started his career in radio, working for prominent stations in Atlanta, Chicago and Washington, D.C. before moving to WTVD. He has received numerous awards for his work, including 10 Emmy Awards, 3 Edward R. Murrow Awards and 2 Associated Press Awards. He has been a frequent guest host for Maryland Public Television.

George Lathon
Today is Dr. Chaplaincies Hammerberg Manchester County. George worked in radio and television for 40 years, including 20 years at WTVD. He was a reporter, anchor and weekend sports director. He was also the play-by-play announcer for Duke football and basketball games. He received numerous awards for his work, including 3 Emmy Awards. He was elected to the Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 1999. George passed away in 2000.

John "Chief" Morris
John is a world-class broadcaster who began his career at WTVD at 19 years old. He was a reporter, anchor and sports director. He was also the play-by-play announcer for Duke football and basketball games. He received numerous awards for his work, including 3 Emmy Awards. He was elected to the Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 1999. John passed away in 2000.

Liz Hoover (d. 2003)
Liz was a pioneer in the broadcasting industry, breaking into WTVD's business office in 1954. She was the first woman to work in the Main Events and Sunrise Semester departments. She was also the first woman to host a talk show in the Raleigh-Durham market. Liz passed away in 2003.

Jim Heavner (d. 2003)
Jim was a pioneer in the broadcasting industry, breaking into WTVD's business office in 1954. He was the first man to work in the Main Events and Sunrise Semester departments. He was also the first man to host a talk show in the Raleigh-Durham market. Jim passed away in 2003.

Jim Shumaker (d. 2003)
Jim was a pioneer in the broadcasting industry, breaking into WTVD's business office in 1954. He was the first man to work in the Main Events and Sunrise Semester departments. He was also the first man to host a talk show in the Raleigh-Durham market. Jim passed away in 2003

Helen Jerome (née Johnson)

Helen Jerome (née Johnson) was a Canadian actress who was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Jack Jerome and was the mother of Peter Jerome. Helen Jerome died on January 1, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Helen Jerome was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Personal Life: Daughter Peter Jerome (Actor/Producer)

Peter Mendelsohn

Peter Mendelsohn was an accomplished actor/director and producer in both the South African and British theatre. He was born in Johannesburg, South Africa on 1 May 1923 and died in London, England on 1 May 1973. He was married to Jean Mendelsohn (nee Taylor) and they had two children, Jonathan and Sarah.

Richard Riordan

Richard Riordan was born and raised in Ireland. He was married to Mary Riordan (nee Hall) and they had two children, Richard and Mary. Richard Riordan died on 1 January 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Richard Riordan was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Richard Riordan was a theatrical manager, director and actor. He was also a stage manager and a radio director. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Karen (Perlman) Reynolds

Karen (Perlman) Reynolds was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Jack Reynolds and was the mother of Peter Reynolds. Karen Reynolds died on January 1, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Karen Reynolds was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Maryann C. (Fyvie) Martin

Maryann C. (Fyvie) Martin was born in Montreal, Quebec, Canada. She was married to Mr. Martin and was the mother of Mrs. Jean Hamilton. Maryann C. (Fyvie) Martin died on January 1, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Maryann C. (Fyvie) Martin was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Photos, Maryann (Fyvie) Martin and John "Chief" Martin, in MGH Vaudeville

Gordon Sinclair

Gordon Sinclair was born on 9 July 1900 in Hopewell Cape, New Brunswick, Canada. He was married to Jean Sinclair (nee Beveridge) and they had two children, Gordon and Jean. Gordon Sinclair died on January 2, 1966 (age 65) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Gordon Sinclair was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Gordon Sinclair was a broadcaster, author and columnist. He was also a sportswriter and a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC).

Gordon Sinclair

Gordon Sinclair was born on 9 July 1900 in Hopewell Cape, New Brunswick, Canada. He was married to Jean Sinclair (nee Beveridge) and they had two children, Gordon and Jean. Gordon Sinclair died on January 2, 1966 (age 65) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Gordon Sinclair was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Gordon Sinclair was a broadcaster, author and columnist. He was also a sportswriter and a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC).

Mike Singleton

Mike Singleton was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada on 1 January 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mrs. Singleton and was the father of Mr. Singleton. Mike Singleton was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mike Singleton was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Oscar Wells Gabriel III

Oscar Wells Gabriel III was born on 9 July 1900 in Hopewell Cape, New Brunswick, Canada. He was married to Jean Sinclair (nee Beveridge) and they had two children, Gordon and Jean. Oscar Wells Gabriel III died on January 2, 1966 (age 65) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Oscar Wells Gabriel III was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Oscar Wells Gabriel III was a broadcaster, author and columnist. He was also a sportswriter and a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC).

Photos, Oscar Wells Gabriel III, in MGH Vaudeville

1966

Dan Aykroyd

Dan Aykroyd was born on 1 July 1952 in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mrs. Aykroyd and was the father of Mr. Aykroyd. Dan Aykroyd was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Dan Aykroyd was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Jan Crosbie

Jan Crosbie was a Canadian actress. Among her film roles, she appeared as a nurse in Bob Clark's horror film Black Christmas (1974). She was married to Mr. Crosbie and was the mother of Mrs. Crosbie. Jan Crosbie died on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Jan Crosbie was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Joseph Scaplehorn (d. 2015)

Joseph Scaplehorn was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Dr. Scaplehorn in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Scaplehorn and was the father of Mr. Scaplehorn. Joseph Scaplehorn died on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Joseph Scaplehorn was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Barry Harris (d. 1996)

Barry Harris was a Canadian actor who had many film and stage credits during his time on the stage. He was married to Mrs. Harris and was the father of Mr. Harris. Barry Harris died on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Barry Harris was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Joe McKenna (d. 2015)

Joe McKenna was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Dr. Watson in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. McKenna and was the father of Mr. McKenna. Joe McKenna died on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Joe McKenna was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Margaret Hall (d. 2015)

Margaret Hall was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Mrs. Hall in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Hall and was the mother of Mrs. Hall. Margaret Hall died on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Margaret Hall was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Lois Maxwell (d. 2015)

Lois Maxwell was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Miss Moneypenny in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Maxwell and was the mother of Mrs. Maxwell. Lois Maxwell died on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Lois Maxwell was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Andrea Martin (b. 1947)

Andrea Martin was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Phyllis in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Martin and was the mother of Mrs. Martin. Andrea Martin was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Andrea Martin was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Mavor Moore (b. 1919)

Mavor Moore was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Harris in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Moore and was the father of Mr. Moore. Mavor Moore was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mavor Moore was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Alan Fawcett

Alan Fawcett was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Fawcett in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Fawcett and was the father of Mr. Fawcett. Alan Fawcett was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Alan Fawcett was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Marie Eggleston

Marie Eggleston was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Mrs. Eggleston in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Eggleston and was the mother of Mrs. Eggleston. Marie Eggleston was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Marie Eggleston was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Lynne Griffin

Lynne Griffin was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Ms. Griffin in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Griffin and was the mother of Mrs. Griffin. Lynne Griffin was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Lynne Griffin was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Art Hindle

Art Hindle was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Hindle in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Hindle and was the father of Mr. Hindle. Art Hindle was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Art Hindle was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Alternatively, in MGH, he was a news anchorperson and host of various shows.

Richard Quine

Richard Quine was born on 12 January 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mrs. Quine and was the father of Mr. Quine. Richard Quine was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Richard Quine was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Mary Ann Quine

Mary Ann Quine was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Quine and was the mother of Mrs. Quine. Mary Ann Quine was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mary Ann Quine was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

1965

Victoria Carolina Mancinelli

Victoria Carolina Mancinelli was born on 1 January 1965 (age 67) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Mancinelli and was the mother of Mrs. Mancinelli. Victoria Carolina Mancinelli was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Victoria Carolina Mancinelli was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Lilliana Cobbett (Mc Crone)

Lilliana Cobbett (Mc Crone) was born on 1 January 1965 (age 67) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Cobbett and was the mother of Mrs. Cobbett. Lilliana Cobbett (Mc Crone) was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Lilliana Cobbett (Mc Crone) was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Jack Cornell

Jack Cornell (b. 1947) was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Cornell in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Cornell and was the father of Mr. Cornell. Jack Cornell was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Jack Cornell was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Photos, Jack, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Dennis da Costa

Dennis da Costa was a Trinidad-born actor and casting director. He was born on 1 January 1965 (age 67) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mrs. da Costa and was the father of Mr. da Costa. Dennis da Costa was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Dennis da Costa was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Dennis da Costa, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Alvin Sicoli, M.D.

Alvin Sicoli, M.D. was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Dr. Sicoli in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Sicoli and was the father of Mr. Sicoli. Alvin Sicoli, M.D. was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Alvin Sicoli, M.D. was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Next page: Alvin Sicoli, M.D. (continued)

John Rosenthal

John Rosenthal was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Rosenthal in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Rosenthal and was the father of Mr. Rosenthal. John Rosenthal was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. John Rosenthal was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Photos, John Rosenthal, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Alvin Sicoli, M.D.

Alvin Sicoli, M.D. was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Dr. Sicoli in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Sicoli and was the father of Mr. Sicoli. Alvin Sicoli, M.D. was born on January 2, 1966 (age 66) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Alvin Sicoli, M.D. was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Alvin Sicoli, M.D. (continued)

Photos, Alvin Sicoli, M.D., as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Alexis Phillips

Alexis Phillips was a Canadian actress who died on 31 December 1965 (age 67) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mrs. Phillips and was the mother of Mrs. Phillips. Alexis Phillips was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Alexis Phillips was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

1962

Edward Coppenrath

Edward Coppenrath was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Coppenrath in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Coppenrath and was the father of Mr. Coppenrath. Edward Coppenrath was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Edward Coppenrath was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Photos, Edward Coppenrath (right) with Tom Kelsey, 1962.

Lee Ellis

Lee Ellis was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Ellis in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Ellis and was the father of Mr. Ellis. Lee Ellis was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Lee Ellis was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Chris Haley

Chris Haley was a Canadian actress. She was married to Mr. Haley and was the mother of Mrs. Haley. Chris Haley was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Chris Haley was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Chris Haley was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Chris Haley, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Joseph Ferris

Joseph Ferris was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Ferris in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Ferris and was the father of Mr. Ferris. Joseph Ferris was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Joseph Ferris was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Rosemary Flannery

Rosemary Flannery was born on 2 January 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Flannery and was the mother of Mrs. Flannery. Rosemary Flannery was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Rosemary Flannery was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Rosemary Flannery, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Anne Cunningham Jeffers

Anne Cunningham Jeffers was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Mrs. Jeffers in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Jeffers and was the mother of Mrs. Jeffers. Anne Cunningham Jeffers was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Anne Cunningham Jeffers was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Anne Cunningham Jeffers was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Anne Cunningham Jeffers, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Michael Kay

Michael Kay was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Kay in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Kay and was the father of Mr. Kay. Michael Kay was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Michael Kay was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Michael Kay was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Mark Kelly

Mark Kelly was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Kelly in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Kelly and was the father of Mr. Kelly. Mark Kelly was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mark Kelly was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mark Kelly was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Doug Mitchell

Doug Mitchell was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Mitchell in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Mitchell and was the father of Mr. Mitchell. Doug Mitchell was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Doug Mitchell was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Doug Mitchell was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Doug Mitchell, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Adrienne O'Keeffe Wolf (d. 2016)

Adrienne O'Keeffe Wolf was a Canadian actress who died on 31 December 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mrs. Wolf and was the mother of Mrs. Wolf. Adrienne O'Keeffe Wolf was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Adrienne O'Keeffe Wolf was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Adrienne O'Keeffe Wolf (d. 2016), as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Catherine Hardwicke

Catherine Hardwicke was born on 21 January 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Hardwicke and was the mother of Mrs. Hardwicke. Catherine Hardwicke was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Catherine Hardwicke was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Catherine Hardwicke, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Ken Dino

Ken Dino was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Dino in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Dino and was the father of Mr. Dino. Ken Dino was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Ken Dino was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Ken Dino was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Ken Dino, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Chuck Tyrrell

Chuck Tyrrell was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Tyrrell in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Tyrrell and was the father of Mr. Tyrrell. Chuck Tyrrell was born on January 2, 1962 (age 70) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Chuck Tyrrell was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Chuck Tyrrell was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Chuck Tyrrell, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

1963

Janet Bechtel

Janet Bechtel was born on 1 January 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Bechtel and was the mother of Mrs. Bechtel. Janet Bechtel was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Janet Bechtel was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Mike Bruce

Mike Bruce was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Bruce in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Bruce and was the father of Mr. Bruce. Mike Bruce was born on January 2, 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mike Bruce was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mike Bruce was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Mike Bruce, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Erich Buchanan

Erich Buchanan was born on 1 January 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mr. Buchanan and was the father of Mr. Buchanan. Erich Buchanan was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Erich Buchanan was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Erich Buchanan, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Paul Coulavarcos

Paul Coulavarcos was born on 1 January 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mr. Coulavarcos and was the father of Mr. Coulavarcos. Paul Coulavarcos was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Paul Coulavarcos was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Paul Coulavarcos, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Mark Ashley, Host of Mark Ashley's Movie Matinee, 1963-1965

Mark Ashley was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Ashley in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Ashley and was the father of Mr. Ashley. Mark Ashley was born on January 2, 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mark Ashley was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Mark Ashley was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Mark Ashley, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Marie Worsley

Marie Worsley was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Mrs. Worsley in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Worsley and was the mother of Mrs. Worsley. Marie Worsley was born on January 2, 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Marie Worsley was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Marie Worsley was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Linda (Chodkowski) Howorth

Linda (Chodkowski) Howorth was born on 1 January 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Howorth and was the mother of Mrs. Howorth. Linda (Chodkowski) Howorth was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Linda (Chodkowski) Howorth was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Linda (Chodkowski) Howorth, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Genevieve Pizzey

Genevieve Pizzey was born on 1 January 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Pizzey and was the mother of Mrs. Pizzey. Genevieve Pizzey was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Genevieve Pizzey was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Genevieve Pizzey, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Ed Reiss

Ed Reiss was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Mr. Reiss in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Reiss and was the father of Mr. Reiss. Ed Reiss was born on January 2, 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Ed Reiss was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Ed Reiss was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Ed Reiss, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Terry Sheridan

Terry Sheridan was born on 1 January 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mr. Sheridan and was the father of Mr. Sheridan. Terry Sheridan was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Terry Sheridan was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Terry Sheridan, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Charlie Stevens

Charlie Stevens was a Canadian sportswriter and TV personality. He was born on 1 January 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mrs. Stevens and was the father of Mr. Stevens. Charlie Stevens was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Charlie Stevens was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Charlie Stevens, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Peter Mark (MD)

Peter Mark (MD) was a Canadian actor who appeared in the role of Dr. Mark in the 1974 film Black Christmas. He was married to Mrs. Mark and was the father of Mr. Mark. Peter Mark (MD) was born on January 2, 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Peter Mark (MD) was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Photos, Peter Mark (MD), as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Jennifer Miller

Jennifer Miller was a Canadian actress who appeared in the role of Ms. Miller in the 1974 film Black Christmas. She was married to Mr. Miller and was the mother of Mrs. Miller. Jennifer Miller was born on January 2, 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Jennifer Miller was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Photos, Jennifer Miller, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Doug Williamson

Doug Williamson was born on January 2, 1963 (age 69) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He was married to Mrs. Williamson and was the father of Mr. Williamson. Doug Williamson was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Doug Williamson was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. He was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. He was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Next page: Doug Williamson (continued)

1964

Sue Gunston

Sue Gunston was born on 1 January 1964 (age 68) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. She was married to Mr. Gunston and was the mother of Mrs. Gunston. Sue Gunston was interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Sue Gunston was a sportswriter, program host, channel owner, programmer, and executive producer. She was also a radio broadcaster for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945. She was also the chief operations officer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) from 1936 to 1945.

Photos, Sue Gunston, as Host Host, in MGH Vaudeville

Arthur McClure Coughlin

Arthur

Robert Marks

Robert served as MPAC's Executive Director for 26 years (1980-2006). Before that he served as MPAC's Director of Research and Education (1977-1980). Prior to MPAC he worked briefly as a participant for the Harlan Hagen labor scholarship program. Robert has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Sociology/Labor Relations and is currently working on his Ph.D. dissertation in Political Science at the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

John Mooney

John started working at MPAC when he was 20, fulfilling an early service award requirement for his Boy Scout Eagle badge. He was a part-time staff member for 10 years and then worked full-time for 10 years as an organizer and membership director. John has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Japanese area studies. From 1979 until 1983 he served as Executive Director of the Japan America Society of Michigan.

Bob Page

Bob's organizing career began at MPAC where he met his wife Sue at the same time. Bob has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Bob is also very active in the Boy Scouts and is the Troop Committee Chair for Troop 1776 in Dearborn. Bob's son Jeff is a Boy Scout in the troop and his son Andy is a Cub Scout in the troop. Bob's daughter Jenny is a Girl Scout in Troop 1776.

Lou Reuter

Lou has been personally known by the local 6 at MPAC Staff and Labor Council for over 30 Presidents, but considers Bill Clinton to be the best President he has known. Lou has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. His favorites are bowling, tennis and golf. Lou's wife Jeanne is a retired Teacher. Lou and Jeanne have two children, Jennifer and Jeffrey, and two grandchildren, Jacob and Ethan. Lou's favorite vacation spot is Traverse City, Michigan.

1987

Mark Gaydos

Mark Gaydos was the operations team director. Among important positions with a union, Mark's responsibilities included overseeing the union's finances, as well as the operations of the union's offices and staff. Mark has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Mark's wife Jeanne is a Teacher. Mark and Jeanne's daughter Jill is Elementary Education major at Central Michigan University.

Kathleen Biggins

Kathleen started working for MPAC in 1987 and left in 1990 to work for the Michigan Democratic Party. She returned to MPAC in 1993 and left in 1995 to work for Governor Engler's campaign. Kathleen has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Kathleen's daughter Kelsey is a Physician Assistant and her son Kevin is a Graduate Student at the University of Michigan. Kathleen's son Brian is a Graduate Student at Wayne State University. Kathleen's daughter Kristen is a Graduate Student at Michigan State University. Kathleen's son Kyle is a Graduate Student at the University of Michigan-Dearborn. Kyle graduated from the Grand Haven Recruiting Academy.

Patricia Biggins

Patricia started working for MPAC 18 years and 364 days after the 25th anniversary of the Reuther Memorial dedication in Detroit. Patricia has been in the labor movement for 30 years. Patricia has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Patricia's husband Kathleen is also a graduate of the Labor Studies program. Patricia's daughter Kelsey is a Physician Assistant and her son Kevin is a Graduate Student at the University of Michigan. Patricia's son Brian is a Graduate Student at Wayne State University. Patricia's son Kyle is a Graduate Student at the University of Michigan-Dearborn. Kyle graduated from the Grand Haven Recruiting Academy.

Patti Ann Browne Rosser

Patti Ann joined MPAC as a Secretary and was soon elected union secretary of our local union. Patti Ann has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Patti Ann's husband Jeff is a Physician Assistant. Jeff's daughter Jessica is a Graduate Student at Michigan State University. Jeff's son Jeffrey is a Graduate Student at the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

Gaynor Bochna

Gaynor started working for MPAC in 1987 and left in 1990 to work for the Michigan Democratic Party. She returned to MPAC in 1993 and left in 1995 to work for Governor Engler's campaign. Gaynor has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Gaynor's husband Kevin is a Graduate Student at the University of Michigan-Dearborn. Kevin graduated from the Grand Haven Recruiting Academy.

1988

Steve Hunt

Steve has been with MPAC since 1988. He started as Organizer, then became Director of Organizing and Membership Development, and is now Director of Political Education. Steve has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Steve's wife Kathy is a Teacher. Steve and Kathy have two children, Jessica and Andrew.

1989

Mark Anderson

Mark is newly-retired Communications Director. Besides regularly producing the Legislative Report, Mark was responsible for MPAC's publications, media relations, and website. Mark has a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Master's degree in Labor Studies. Mark's wife Jeanne is a Teacher. Mark and Jeanne have two children, Jessica and Jeffrey.

Maria (Nicole) Mercantini

Nicole (Maria at MPAC) has been a Secretary, Organizer, Lobbyist, Campaign Director, Lobbyist, Campaign Director, Lobbyist, Campaign Director